

Setting up a hybrid record management system with probative value

Safran is an international high-technology group operating in the following fields:
aeronautics (propulsion, equipment and interiors), space and defense

Challenges

- Comply with legal, normative and regulatory requirements by securing growing electronic flows, including paper flows (> 100 km).
- Standardize archiving practices across the Group
- Respond to audit requests from oversight authorities

Key figures:

No. of users: 400

Volumes: 1 million Records

Results

- 1 information governance policie for the entire Group
- A hybrid record management application
- Enhancing the value of information assets in compliance with legal, normative and regulatory obligations
- Immediate access to documents in the event of an audit
- Automated exchanges with third-party archivers